

This is a matter that falls under the jurisdiction of the State of Missouri, and not the federal government in Washington. The best person to help you with this issue is your state representative or state senator, both of whom serve you in Jefferson City.

Find your state legislators

Also, please note that neither state nor federal legislators can actively influence a civil or criminal matter that is before a court.